

A Christmas Carol Revisited: Scrooge's Reclamation

For many people the holidays are a time of moral self-reflection. In addition to being a celebration of Christmas, Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol is a profound meditation that challenges us to think about moral duty, human happiness and personal transformation. This presentation uses role play, film and discussion to examine Scrooge's change from closed-hearted miser to open-hearted philanthropist.

Presenters: Jim Gould and Ted Hazelgrove team-taught classes in Ethics and Literature at McHenry County College for 20 years.

Location: St. James Episcopal Church, 516 Washington St., West Dundee
